Best Saddle Stallion in Kentucky.

Kentucky Squirrel, No. 427.

THIS BEAUTIFUL STALLION WILL MAKE THE PRESENT SEASON AT OUR stable in Columbia and will serve mares for the low sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare traded or removed.

Kentucky Squirrel was foaled in 1887; is a brown, 16 hands and is richly and fashionably bred. There is not a saddle stallion living that can out act him. As a 3-year-old he was shown all through Kentucky and was never defeated in his ring, and at the close of the season he was sold to Mr. J. W. Bales, of Richmond, Ky., for $1,900. He is a perfect model, a horse of wonderful endurance and a very superior actor. He has proven himself a number one breeder. Kentucky Squirrel's colts have plenty of size, style and finish. They are especially good actors and command the highest prices when placed on the market. There has been more high price horses sold from the Squirrel family than from any family of saddle horses that ever existed in the United States. If you want to raise a horse for profit and one that you can sell for the highest market price breed to Kentucky Squirrel.

MONARCH.

Our jack, Monarch, will make the present season at $5.00 to insure a living colt, money due when mare is traded or parted with. Monarch is a black jack, 6 years old, 15 hands high, very heavy, fine bone and foot, long ears and long body. He has the length, great style and is richly bred, being from the best strains ever produced in Kentucky and is himself one of the finest individuals we have ever seen. He has proven himself a great breeder. See him and his colts and be convinced of above description. We have an experienced man to look after mares being bred. Mares fed grain or pastured at reasonable rate, but will in no way be responsible for accidents or escapes.

THE TWO SINNERS.

She was a woman, worn and thin, whom the world condemned for a single sin. They cast her out of the highway, and passed her by as they went to pray. He was a man, and more to blame, but the world spared him a breath of shame. Beneath his feet he saw her lie, but he raised his head and passed her by. They were the people who went to pray, at the temple of God on the holy day. They scorned the woman, forgave the man: "I was ever thus since the world began. Time passed on, and the woman died, on a cross of shame was crucified. The world was stern, and would not yield, and they buried her in the potter's field. The man died, too, and they buried him, in a casket of cloth with a silver trim, as they turned from the grave away, "We have buried a noble man to-day." Two mortals knocked at heaven's gate, stood face to face to inquire their fate. He carried a passport with an earthly sign, but she a pardon from love divine, O ye who judge "twice sinners and vice, which, think ye entered paradise? Not he whom the world had said would win, for the woman alone was saved in.—Bob Taylor.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Co.

(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. B. HARRIS, Editor.

Democrat newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered as the Columbia Postoffice as second class matter.

WEDNESDAY MAY 14

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce H. H. HENNING, Wayne County, a candidate for the office of State Treasurer, subject to election of the Democratic party.

EDITORIALS.

The death of Admiral Sampson removes one of the chief figures from the stage of action.

Judge Thomas H. Paynter has been re-nominated by the Democrats for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Sixth district.

Ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley and Mr. H. W. Batson have formed a partnership in the practice of law. The firm is located in Louisville.

Hon. W. P. Thorne, in a speech at New Castle, formerly announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

But one formal announcement has been made for Governor, but it is understood that Beckham, Black, Hendricks and Breckenridge will enter the contest.

Gen. Miles refused to be a pall bearer at Admiral Sampson's funeral. He offered an explanation. Miles claims that he was mistaken for Sampson at Santiago.

The House last Friday passed the bill providing for enabling acts whereby the Territories of Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico may enter the Union as States.

Alan-a-Dale, the colt that won the Kentucky Derby, pulled up lame after the race, and it is feared he has broken down completely. His owner valued him at $50,000.

Lee Turner of "Quarter Horse" fame, shot and killed his cousin, John Turner, near Middleboro last Saturday. They had been enemies for years, and meeting in a country road, John Turner opened fire with result as above stated. Lee Turner was immediately tried and acquitted.

Paul Leicester Ford, the novelist, and author of "Janie Meredith," was shot and killed by his insane brother, Malcolm, in New York last Wednesday. After firing the fatal shot Malcolm put a bullet through his own head. Both brothers were buried together. Malcolm became unbalanced on account of financial difficulties.

Ten thousand cattle were left on the Chicago markets because the packing houses refused to buy them unless sold at less than current prices. The stockmen claim that the action was direct result of the combination among the packers. If the Beef Trust intends to treat cattle-raisers in this manner there will be a reckoning which will make every one responsible for such a condition suffer.

Admiral Schley when told of the death of Admiral Sampson expressed regret and sympathy for his family. He said, "No one has ever heard me utter one unkind word about him." Under the provocation such self control is remarkably true this is an additional evidence of his greatness. The real hero of Santiago, the Master Spirit of American Naval Warfare has suffered more indignities from the powers of his own country than any other great American. Calm and deliberate in the greatest modern naval battle, true and courageous when being deprived of the honors and emoluments of his victory. He is a great old man and shows that magnanimous spirit under any and all circumstances.

A volcanic eruption of Mt. Pelee, in the Island of Martinique, Thursday of last week, destroyed the city of Pierre, and the loss of life is placed at 40,000. A French cruiser, which was off the city at the time of the fearful catastrophe, managed to save about thirty lives. The downpour of lava reached the harbor, and every vessel save one was destroyed with all their crews. Eye-witnesses state that the volcano, which had been active for several days, seemed to burst its cap and a flood of steam, sand and molten rocks followed. Ashes fell on the Island of Barbadoes, one hundred miles from St. Pierre, and on ships at sea. Incoming vessels report that the ocean was visibly affected and contrary currents ensued. No one up to last Saturday had been able to land at St. Pierre.

PALESTINE.

People are busy planting corn and watermelons.

W. C. Eads, of this place, was in Mansville last Sunday.

Miss Eva Richardson and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson are on the sick list.

Miss Lena Ekins, of this place, is living with her aunt, at Elkhorn, this year.

Mr. Walter Bowen, of Springfield, met with a serious accident last Sunday afternoon while trying to load cattle, his horse falling and breaking his leg.

Rev. Smith Tandy's little son, died May 3, and was laid to rest at Pleasant Hill church.

Mr. Vance Oaks, about 22 years of age, who had been squinting, sat down in the door to examine his gun, and it was accidentally discharged, the lead passing through his thigh. He died rapidly and died in a few hours.

Rev. J. T. Hall filled his appointment here on Sunday.

Cut-worms are getting in their work of devastation, and many farmers are having to plant their corn the second time.

Geo. Stark bought of Willie Kinnard one cow and calf for $25.

Mrs. J. M. Hensley died a few days ago after much suffering. She leaves a husband and five small children.

Mrs. Jonathan Reed, who has been confined so long to her bed, is now thought to be dying—will probably not live six hours longer.

Judge Samuel Shannon celebrated his 72nd birthday on the 13th. He was born and reared in Adair county on the farm known as the Wyatt Smith place. When about 18 years old he moved with his father to this place.

Married early—Miss Hughes, of Adair county, and became a very prominent man in the affairs of the county, and Church and Community church. He was elected county judge and served the people satisfactorily, taking especial care of the county's finances. He has many friends in Adair county who will be glad to know that he is reasonably well for his age.

By all means let us have a re-union of Adair's people. By that means we will be enabled to see many of our old schoolmates and friends of former years that otherwise we may never meet. Adair has sons and daughters scattered all over the United States who would like to meet friends of long ago. I believe such a meeting would be highly appreciated by those who have pitched their tents in other fields, and we would all feel better—and in fact be better from having met.

Born, to the of D. E. Edwards, on the 13th inst., a daughter.

Mrs. Mary Reed, of Bowling Green, after a protracted illness, to her father-in-law, has returned home.

I understand that our enterprising Mr. J. H. Lee, will probably engage in the culture of king-seed, which seems to be a very profitable business in some localities.

A GOOD DETECTIVE.

Last week a colored boy and two girls of his complexion called at the store of Mr. Scott Montgomery and the article wanted necessitated him to go to the rear room, the boy and one girl with him. About the time he thought the other was into mischief he stepped to the door. He observed that the colored boy had dropped and going up to her asked her what she had, her reply being nothing, nothing, but her soft answer did not allay his suspicion. He gave her a bunch and demanded that she give up his goods and in an instant of time ran her hand under her wearing apparel and pulled out two packages of stolen goods. Returning to the others he caught the boy putting coin into his pocket which he was allowed to keep as he said he wanted to plant it. It's well enough for merchants to watch. One thing certain it takes a little one to get in the work of Mr. Montgomery. In this case he lived the rest being the first merchant in Columbia to extract Mammoth Six Bluing from a dusty maid.

Micks on the lakes complain that rivals use the searchlight to blind them.

One of the last wishes expressed by a lady who died recently near San Francisco was that her favorite motor car should be taken out to sea and sunk in deep water. The deathbed order has been duly obeyed.

Union Pacific railroad officials have created consternation in the Boulder oilfields by announcing that nearly all the deeds for property sold during the past six years contain a clause expressly reserving the mineral on the land.

According to a rough estimate prepared by the navy department, 7,500 medals will be required for the officers and men of the navy and marine corps who participated in the engagements in and adjacent to the West Indies during the war with Spain.

An applicant for naturalization at Newport, R. I., the other day was asked the usual question, "Do you belong to any societies to overthrow the United States government?" "Yes," replied the would-be citizen promptly: "I belong to the carpenters' union."

A. L. Schaeffer of Edgar county, Ill., last year harvested the largest crop of popcorn ever gathered in the world. From his 102 acres he had 1,800 bushels, a yield of a little over seventeen bushels to the acre. It cost him $17 an acre to raise, sort, shell and pay ground rent.

FROM THE COMMONER.

The way to defeat the ship subsidy is to defeat the party that stands for subsidy.

People are beginning to understand more thoroughly what is meant by "contract of beef."

The Sioux City Journal is thirty-two years old—old enough to know better and seemingly to do so.

There will be no difficulty about achieving harmony if the harmonizing is based on Democratic principles.

The beef trust is not worrying the Ohio Republican politicians half so much as the Iowa Republican office trust.

English military officers are trying to locate the blame for the Spion Kop disaster. Did they ever think of attributing it to the Boers?

Eves Fuston regards the "water gun" as cruel and yet it was employed by American soldiers under the order of American officers.

Consistent Democrats will continue to refuse to follow the lead of men who call themselves democrats but advocate Republican principles.

The reorganizers say we must do something to fill the offices with Democrats, but the last time the reorganizers were in office they left the Democratic party and carried their offices with them.

Everything that could be done to aid the empire in its fight against the republic has been done under the Republican administration. American traditions have been ruthlessly violated; indignity has been shown to the natural sympathies of the American people; and it need not be expected that there will be any change in this policy unless there is a protest so clear and plain that it cannot be misunderstood.

Now that's testimony before the committee was as unfriendly to the Philippines that his usefulness as a governor will be largely impaired. The Philippines would have, to be very charitable to overlook his unfairness.

The Johnsons' Democrat, noting the President has a post for commissioner of pensions, remarks that "if he would straighten out the affairs of his administration he would get a lot of help."

Why does he not call it one of the problems who have it out that the protective tariff is a good thing for all.

The Republican remedy for the exclusion of beef trusts reminds one of the Chinese way of making resistance a rebuff. When a Chinaman wants to show his enmity he commits suicide on his enemy's doorstep. The Republican remedy is to advise the people to abstain from the use of meat in order to show their enmity to the beef trust.

AFRAID OF THE ISSUE.
The republican journals are already shying at the Philippine question.

They know that they cannot defend the principles which underlie colonialism, and therefore, instead of boldly outlining a policy and defending it, they resort to subterfuge and misrepresentation.

The Kansas City Journal, one of the most unscrupulous of the republican papers, asks its fight by crying out that the democratic substitute "is, in effect, an outright repudiation of the fundamental doctrine on which Mr. Bryan and his party made the campaign of 1900."

It alleges that the democrats wanted immediate independence and that this "Mr. Bryan's plan and the plan of the party was to scuttle and run." If the editor of the Journal will read the Democratic platform of 1900 he will find that the platform and the party's candidates favored an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose: First, to establish a stable government; second, to give independence to the Philippines; and third, to protect them from outside interference.

The party has always insisted that the establishment of a stable government in the place of the one overthrow comes before independence, but when it is understood that the government is to belong to the Filipinos and not to us, it will not take long to establish it. This is the point upon which the administration's policy differs from the democratic policy. Whose government is it to be? That is the all important question. The Filipinos do not want to be subjects; they want a government of their own. All they require is a promise of independence and then the formation of a government will be an easy matter.

The Journal says: "As a matter of fact, the kind of self-government proposed for the Filipinos by the republican bill contains about as much independence as the democratic measure." The editor of the Journal knows better, if he has read both plans. The republican plan is drawn upon the plan proposed for the American colonies by King George III., while the democratic substitute is drawn upon the plan proposed by the colonists. No amount of hubbub or hypocrisy about our "duty" or our "destiny" can cloud the issue.

The republican leaders deny the right of the Filipinos to self-government, and the republican plan contemplates perpetual dependence and vassalage for the Filipinos. The democratic leaders assert the right of the Filipinos to self-government and their capacity for it, and the democratic plan contemplates the immediate promise and speedy grant of independence.

It is a contest between self-government and arbitrary power—between a republic and an empire. The more the question is discussed the clearer this issue will become, and it is not surprising that the republicans, already conscious of their position, are beginning to dodge the principles involved and run from the question—The Commoner.

VICTIM OF BUNCO MEN.
This story of a meeting between two Owen county men in Louisville is from the Owen News-Herald: Jim Todd met one of his old Eagle Creek friends in Louisville last week.

As he was going down Main street he noticed a block ahead of him a familiar figure, Sam—. He had been down to the tobacco warehouse, had dined with Jack Barleymore and was fixed right for the cork. As he came toward Todd he was cutting curves like a kiddle on a creek.

"Hello, Sam!" says Jim.

Sam stiffened up and began to back away. After he had backed half way across Main street Jim bailed him again.

"Why, Sam, don't you know me?" "Jim, is it you?"

"Why, of course it's me, who else could it be?"

"I thought you was one of those here bunks; you look kinder like a bunko man. They've robbed me two or three times, but say, Jim, and he drew his eyebrows down knowingly, "I'm gittin up to snuff, though some people aver gitt smart enough to live till they are old enough to die. I'm full of free lunch and five-cent whiskey, but I'm fixed for a home run. I've got my return ticket sewed up in the seat of my pants, and if they rob me this round they'll have to run on me with a reap hook."

JUST A-HINT.
Daughter, don't let mother do it! Do not let her slave and toil! While you sit a useless idler, Feasting your soft hands to sell, Don't you see the heavy burden Daily she is wont to bear.

Bring the lines upon her forehead, Sprinkle silver in her hair? Daughter, don't let mother do it, Do not let her bake and broil; Through long bright summer hours, Share with her the heavy toll; See, her eyes has lost its brightness, From her cheek the ruby glow, And the step that once was buoyant Now is feeble, weak and slow.

Daughter, don't let mother do it; She has cared for you so long; Is it right the weak and feeble Should be toiling for the strong? Waken from your listless languor, Seek her side to cheer and bless, And your grief will be less bitter When the gods above her press.

Daughter, don't let mother do it, You will never, never know What was home without a mother! Till that mother lieth low; Low beneath the bedding daisies, Free from earthly care and pain, To the home so sad without her Never to return again.

PROTECT THE FISH.
The fishing season has opened but from all accounts the only class of fishermen who are getting any return for their efforts are the law-breakers—the fellows who resort to the shameful practice of dynamiting the streams and thereby destroying thousands in order to secure a few fish. There is a heavy penalty provided by law for any one found guilty of dynamiting the streams for fish, and there is also a liberal standing reward for any information leading to the conviction of guilty ones and yet it seems almost impossible to break up the lawless practice. Several of the streams in this county would afford excellent sport for real fishermen, being naturally adapted to the growth of good fish. Were it not for the fact that the fish are constantly being destroyed by dynamite, snaring, trapping and other illegal and unsportsmanlike means of capturing, it would be a blessing if one of these lawbreakers could be convicted and punished to the fullest extent of the law. The example might be of benefit to others.
